

CITY OF RENTON

ADMINISTRATIVE REVIEW PROCESS

City staff or other agencies may request additional information during the review and decision making process. It is important that the applicant submit the requested material quickly to avoid delays in the process. Any time spent gathering data and/or additional city review period is not included in the above chart and will increase the time required to process the application.